found in a well at Sushi in Gevrai tehsil on October 30, 2017. Initially the police has assumed it that trio might have committed suicide.

Navnath Dhage, the brother of deceased Jaishiri lodged a complaint against Rajendra Laxman Pawar (35), alleging that there was dispute over a piece of land between two real brothers Tulsiram and Rajendra.

Rajendra murdered his brother Tulsiram, sister-

-in-law and nephew. After killing them, he dumped their bodies into a well so that people could take it a suicide case.

When Rajendra came to know that a case of murder was registered against him, he was absconding since then. His body was found in river water near Madalmohi area in Gevrai tehsil. The gruesome murders took place for one a and half acres of land.

Farmers demand maize procurement centre

Vaijapur, Nov 17: Farmers have demanded to start a government maize procurement centre as there is a bumper crop of maize in the tehsil this year.

Dhananjay Dhonde, a farmer hailing from Dongaon village alongwith Laxman Mukind, Babasaheb Pansare, Ashok Matsagar, Balasaheb Jagtap, Sambhaji Turakane on Friday submitted a representation to tehsildar urging the government to start the procurement centre immediately. They also alleged that the farmers are looted by the traders who procure the maize at the reduced rate than the minimum support price announced by the government.

This year the government has announce a minimum support price of Rs 1,425 per quintal for maize with the maximum moisture limit to 14 points. There is bumper crop of cotton and maize this year. Around 5 to 6 lakh quintal could be reaped in the tehsil in the last kharif season.

Therefore there is an urgent need to set up procurement centre for maize by the government.

It is said that due to unavailability of the space for the procurement of maize the process of setting up of the centre is delayed. Sahebrao Autade, who heads Kharedi Vikree Sangh, a cooperative society that is entrusted to purchase and sell maize, fertilizers and other coarse grains has submitted a representation to the tehsildar 15 days back, yet the centre has not been started. Godown is also not available at the government warehouse corporation office situated on station road here. Sources said that as the Godown will be available, a deal would be struck in between the warehouse and kharedi Vikree Sangh, for providing godown to store the purchased maize from the farmers. It is expected that procurement centre would be started in three to four days.

Road Romeo sentenced to one year RI

LOKMAT NEWS NETWORK
AURANGABAD, NOV 17

Additional sessions judge V V Patil today sentenced Prashant Dharmaraj Barse to one-year rigorous imprisonment and slapped a fine of Rs 7,000. The court ordered to give the amount of penalty to the complainant.

The girl on March 28, 2014 had registered a complaint against Prashant Barse (24, Pensionpura, Chawni).

The girl in her complaint stated that while she was coming to home after attending her classes the culprit chased her and abused her. He later threatened her of dire consequences if she speaks about the matter to her parents.

The frightened girl along with her parents approached the Chawni police station and registered a complaint against the culprit.

After investigation PI G R Khachle submitted the charge sheet in the court. During the hearing assistant government lawyer Dnyaneshwar Nagula registered statements of six witnesses. The court later announced the above decision.
