AURANGABAD, NOV 20

Accused Balu alias Balasaheb Thombre's (27) anticipatory bail plea was rejected by session court judge S S Nair on Monday. The arrest warrant was issued against him on a charge of lacing the drink of a married woman and subsequently raping her. The accused had invited the victim to the birthday party of his friend (22, resident of Santoshimata Nagar, Mukundwadi) on November 2 at the farm house in Shendra MIDC. He even offered her lift to the venue on his motorcycle. The woman joined them to the party where she was offered soft drink that was laced with alcohol and later gang raped by accused and three others. Two accused Anil Thombre and Jagdish Prasad Thombre were arrested and are presently in the judicial custody. Third accused Balasaheb Thombre had filed an anticipatory bail plea in the court, where assistant government pleader Ajit Ankush argued that police want to conduct medical test of the accused. After hearing the arguments, the court rejected the bail plea.

3 farmers end life in four days in Nanded

Nanded, NOV 20: Three farmers committed suicide during the last four days in the district due to non-production in the agricultural farms. Venkat Giri Naga Gir, a resident of Aural village in Mukhed tehsil, committed suicide for continuous non production and overburden of debt, on evening of Sunday by hanging himself to a tree. He had 8-acre land with cultivation of soyabean, moong, udat and cotton. But he lost most of the crops due to infestation of pests. Not able to bear the loss he committed suicide. The Mukramabad police filed a case of accidental death. The deceased is survived by a son and four daughters. In another incident, a debt-ridden farmer identified as Antara Ganpati Boinwad (32), resident of Pandurni village in Bhokar tehsil, committed suicide by jumping into the lake in the Bhokar tehsil. He could not repay the debts of Rs 50,000 to the SBI due to non-production in his agricultural farm. The dead body was recovered late evening. On the basis of a complaint lodged by Maruti Boinwad, the Bhokar police filed a case of accidental death. In a third incident, a farmer Ganesh Nagorao Farkande, a resident of Pangari village in Kinwat tehsil committed suicide by consuming poison and later on jumping into a well on November 16. The reason was the harassment caused by the private money-lenders from whom he had borrowed Rs 5 lakh. The deceased got a loan from the private money lenders by mortgaging his agricultural land. The money-lenders harassed him for repayment of the loan. For not bearing it, Farkande took the extreme step. As per the complaint lodged by his wife Lakshimbai, the Islapur police filed a case against the money lenders Balaji Raghunath Kadam and Pandit Raghunath Kadam under various sections of the Indian Penal Code. The assistant police inspector Rameshwar Kayande is investigating the matter.
